TROPICO CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO WORK FOR BRIDGE AT IVANHOE

The Tropico Chamber of Commerce met in regular session at the City Hall last Thursday evening. President R. T. Smith was in the chair.

The main issue appearing was the matter of securing a bridge across the Los Angeles river at Ivanhoe to complete Brand boulevard, thus making a shorter route to the heart of Los Angeles. This is a subject that is of vital interest to Tropico, Glendale, Burbank and San Fernando, and one that should be pushed by all concerned.

Tropico is the entrance to all the beauties of the San Fernando valley, and auto parties must first enter Tropico to get anywhere. It behooves us to keep the irons hot in an effort to make every possible move to draw bigger crowds.

The Chamber decided that action was necessary, and on Friday, April 16 representatives from all sections to be benefited will attend a meeting at the City Hall to devise means.

The Chamber will recommend to the Board of Trustees that immediate action be taken to abate the nuisance of weeds in parkings and vacant lots, trees trimmed and the branches allowed to stay where they fall, and the dirty sidewalks in front of plowed lots.

When it is realized that thousands of autos pass through Tropico every week on their way to some of the scenic wonders of this Southern California, and that every person in these autos is a possible investor, the civic pride of every property owner in Tropico should rise up and endeavor to show these visitors that our city is as clean as possible. Other cities are doing it and are receiving the returns.

When weeds are allowed to cover vacant lots and parkings the visitor is led to think of slothfulness and lack of pride. Now we know that there is not one of us that is lazy or lacking in pride, and we could lick any one who says so.

The Board of Trustees will be called upon to enact ordinances to prod us up on the subject.

Ways and means are being figured to properly advertise Tropico. Lack of funds at the present keep this matter back.

On all maps of general use throughout the country Tropico is conspicuous by its absence. Through the Chamber of Commerce Rand-McNally Co. and all other large map publishers will be approached with a request that Tropico be put on the map.

NEXT TUESDAY YOEMAN NIGHT AT THE STAR THEATRE

Following the example of the various other organizations in the city, the local Yeoman Homestead has secured the Star theater for the evening of Tuesday, April 20th. In addition to the regular program, several vaudeville numbers will be presented.

All good Yeomen and friends of Yeomanry are expected and invited to be present.

SUPPER

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will serve a chicken pie supper in the Sunday School room on Friday evening, April 16th, from 5:30 to 8:00 p. m. Supper served cafeteria style, at cafeteria prices. Everybody welcome.

GRAND FIESTA, RODEO AND STORY OF THE GOLDEN WEST

Southern California in general and Los Angeles in particular is to be the mecca for thousands of tourists early next month, when nine days of typical western celebration are to be staged under the direction of the 1915 General Committee of Los City and County. The festivities commences May 1.

Combined with a series of magnificent pageants, and La Fiesta de las Flores, a typical Southern California institution, is to be produced the 1915 Rodeo, the most spectacular wild west spectacle ever attempted.

The Rodeo will revive the early days of the Golden West, its glory, grandeur and splendor. A complete panorama of the Golden State from its earliest days to the opening of the Panama Canal will be depicted in the big nine days celebration.

One thousand world famous cowboys, cowgirls, bronco busters, stage coach drivers, relay riders, pony expressmen, and others impersonating the famous figures of western fiction and history will take part in the mammoth spectacle.

Cash prizes aggregating thousands of dollars have been hung up to attract these experts from all over the world. The famous stars of the western film dramas have signed articles of entry, while the wildest and most daring horses of the world have been assembled for the occasion.

Three great parades will open the celebration. On the morning of May 1, a world wonder historical pageant will be staged. "The Story of the Golden West" it is called. The same evening, the monster electrical parade "Queen Flora" will take place. On Monday, May 3, La Fiesta de las Flores, the great floral parade will give pleasure to the hundreds of thousands of visitors who are expected. The Rodeo proper will start Saturday afternoon, May 1, in the Stadium, at Thirty-fifth and Hooper streets, Los Angeles, one of the largest open-air amusement centers in the world.

Here is the complete program as announced by Motley H. Flint, chairman of the 1915 General Committee of Los Angeles City and County.

Saturday, May 1, 10 a. m.—The Story of the Golden West. Wonderful street pageant, portraying the thrilling pioneer days of Western life. There will be included in this parade many old-time relics, reminiscent of the early development of California—prairie schooners, mining outfits, fire apparatus and paraphernalia, stage coaches, pack trains, chuck wagons, cowboys, rang riders, from the plains and desert, and representative riders from great ranches of the country, famous in history of the development of the great Southwest.

Saturday, May 1, 2 O'Clock—Opening of Great Rodeo or Roundup. Continuing each afternoon, up to and including May 9, at the Stadium, Thirty-fifth and Hooper avenue, seating over 20,000 people. Biggest thing of its kind ever held. Greatest aggregation of bucking horses ever brought together at one point. Actual conditions of frange life, with its perils and hardships presented by daring cowboys and cowgirls. Riding and roping, relay races, stage coach races, pony express, races and exhibitions of bucking horses riding, in which the most vicious equines from seven states will appear.

Saturday, May 1, 8 P. M.—Great electrical pageant, Queen Flora, feast of flowers. The crowning achievement of Fawcett Robinson, the world's greatest decorative electrical artist. The last word in perfection of artistic creation. Fifteen floats. Subjects: Amreica, California, Snowdrop and Crocus, Tulips, Peony, Hibiscus, Bluebell, Violet, A Native Son, Queen Flora, Rose, Evening Primrose, Magnolia, Sunflower, Forget-me-not.

IS THE "BOY SCOUT OF AMERICA" MOVEMENT A MILITARY ONE?

Answered by Harold Benner

Since I first became a scout in Tropico I have answered many questions regarding the scout movement. It seems that the question most uppermost in the public's mind is if the Boy Scouts of America are a military movement. No it is not. As an organization the boy scout movement is neither military in thought, form or spirit, although it does instill the military virtues, such as honor, loyalty, obedience and patriotism. The boy scout movement could never have progressed as it has if it had been run on a military standpoint. In America over 300,000 boys, between the ages of 12 and 18, belong to this movement, and fully as many belong in foreign countries. This movement is a worldwide movement, not controlled by one man, but by the world's greatest men, as President Wilson, the king of England, the kaiser of Germany and the president of France. The movement in America is backed by our foremost men, as Mr. Wilson, Taft, Roosevelt, Colin H. Livingstone, David Starr Jordan, Ernest Thompson Seton, Daniel Carter Beard, George D. Pratt, James E. West, and many other prominent men of our country.

Some months past I noticed an article in a Los Angeles paper stating that the Boy Scouts of England had gone to the front to fight. This statement was untrue, and if any of the Boy Scouts of England went to the front they went to rescue the wounded and dying. The majority of the Scouts of England are at home taking the places of those who are fighting. They have not learned to fight but are doing more towards helping the women and children of England than any other organization in their country. Its the same with Germany, France and Belgium.

Another reason the boy scout movement could not be carried out successfully on a military basis is that a majority of the people of today do not believe in war. Many parents wouldn't think of letting their boy join the army or navy. Why? Because as David Starr Jordan said: "The larger our army and navy the more the tendency is for war," and I think he knows what he is talking about. These same parents, after reading and hearing talks on the Boy Scout Plan and knowing the principles for which it stands, have let their boys join. These parents love their children just as much as any one else, but you can't just love a boy, you've got to understand him and what he wants, and in nine cases out of ten he has a longing to be good and be useful. The Boy Scout Plan is the boys' plan. It tries to teach him what he longs for, and so far it has succeeded.

There are a great many things our movement has to struggle against.

One of these and probably the most harmful here in the western United States was a movement started by Mr. Hearst four years ago. At that time a movement among boys was started, called the American Boy Scout Movement. The object of this movement was to advertise his different papers and to make as much money as possible out of it. This movement was run on a military basis. It lasted just long enough for Mr. Hearst to make some money and long enough so that the people of California and other places to get the impression that the boy scouts was a fake. I belonged to that organization then, so I know that what I have said is true. But at last the people of the western United States are realizing the great value the boy scouts are to a community and, in fact, to the world.

Our troop in Tropico is not quite ready to take in new members.

The time will probably be announced by our secretary or the council when new members will be welcome.

When discussing the scout movement in your homes, remember to keep this in mind that our organization is non-military, non-sectarian and non-alasleep.

The Day of Moss Covered Ads. Is Done.

By MOSS.

MR. MERCHANT, you are NOT an advertising expert. YOUR business is to sell coal, or dry goods, or hardware, or real estate, or drugs, or what not. You know how to do THAT right down to the ground.

There's not the SHADOW OF A DOUBT that the ads. in some newspapers lose 10 to 50 per cent of their REAL PULLING VALUE through the deplorable lack of PROPER DISPLAY either in type or illustration or persuasive wording. There's not the shadow OF A DOUBT either that this is largely due to the fact that the advertiser is TOO BUSY to map out his ads. PROPERLY or else is INEXPERIENCED.

This paper is ready at ALL TIMES to assist our advertisers to improve the appearance of their ads. We have been of great help in that respect to many. But this is addressed principally to the merchant who knows he OUGHT TO ADVERTISE, but feels he can't do it RIGHT. To such we will gladly furnish suggestions as to style and text, or, better still, we will provide snappy, exclusive illustrated advertising cuts, cleverly worded, at small cost. Saves you time, worry and bother.

ACT ON THIS RIGHT OFF!

CAST OF "POLLY OF THE CIRCUS" ARE NEARLY ALL TROPICO PEOPLE

In spite of the fact that "Polly of the Circus," the High School Alumni production, is to be staged at the Palace-Grand theater in Glendale, we must not labor under the impression that the cast of players has slighted the members who reside in Tropico. Students from this city have always been prominent in the affairs of the high school, perhaps unduly so in proportion to their number. And their interest has not ceased upon graduation for many of them have worked enthusiastically for the advancement of their Alma Mater, as in the present attempt to add to the scholarship fund.

Dwight Stephenson

Dwight Stephenson, who came to Tropico in his knickerbocker age, was president of his senior class, an honor graduate from the high school and was winner of the second annual oratorical contest. Now an attorney, and prominently connected with the legal department of the Title Guarantee and Trust Company, Mr. Stephenson is cast in the leading masculine role in "Polly of the Circus." He is still remembered in Tropico for his extremely clever work in the George Ade comedy, "Just Out of College," which was produced in benefit of the Tropico drinking fountain fund.

Owen Rhodes

Owen Rhodes graduated from the high school in 1910. He was valedictorian of his class and received many other honors during his four years' connection with the institution. He is perhaps better known as a playwright than an actor—and perhaps for good reason—though his considerable experience in that line should be of assistance in the rendition of his part, that of an old circus clown.

Emily Elias

Miss Elias is an honor graduate of the class of 1911. Though not a member of the cast, she is the president of the Alumni Association, hence actively engaged in the work of the production. It is due to her that the association is sufficiently organized to attempt this ambitious piece of work. The young lady is now a teacher at the Tropico grammar school.

Miss Eula Richardson

Miss Richardson is one of the graduates whose high school career dates back to the days of the old "cheese box" building, which stood on the corner of Broadway and broad boulevard. She is most happily cast in the forthcoming production, although her work is all carried on behind the scenes—having accepted the position of business manager. Miss Richardson is a life-long resident of Tropico.

Mrs. Elinor Lincoln Brown

Although not a graduate of Glendale High School, Mrs. Brown is entitled to be mentioned as "amongst those present," for she is the power behind the script in the circus play. She has had extensive stage experience, at one time appearing in support of Joseph Jefferson, and has staged plays for the University of Kansas, Stanford University, and was more recently the guiding genius in "Just Out of College."

So it may be seen that there is a personal reason why the people of Tropico are entitled to more than a passing interest in "Polly." In answering queries regarding tickets, these are on sale at the Palace-Grand theater or may be had from the members of the cast—and the date is the 22nd and 23rd of April.

While it has not been definitely settled and no committees have been formed to look into the matter as yet, it is generally understood that Tropico will pull off another one of those popular auto road races on the Fourth of July. In all probability the Chamber of Commerce will handle the affair.

A Story of Heredity

By EUNICE BLAKE

Mrs. Waterbury employed a maid who was not only comely, but there was about her an air of one to the manner born. So impressed was the lady with the belief that Silvia had good blood in her veins that she asked the girl to tell her something about her origin. Silvia refused.

"Where did you spend your childhood?" asked Mrs. Waterbury.

"I cannot tell you," was the reply, while Silvia hung her head.

"Don't you remember your parents?"

"I do not."

"How long have you been in service?"

"Two years."

Mrs. Waterbury gave up trying to find her maid's antecedents, but she was not convinced that she had been born a servant. Silvia's case interested her the more because she reminded her of a woman she had met when she was entering society. This Mrs. Marshall had been at the time a woman of forty and had become a social leader from the fact of a certain courtliness there was about her.

What it was in the servant that reminded her of the high bred woman Mrs. Waterbury could not tell. Mrs. Marshall had been socially prominent a quarter of a century before. Mrs. Waterbury, who was twenty years her junior, had not been intimate with her and had seen her only at certain functions.

Silvia came to be an important person to her employer other than as a servant. Arthur Waterbury, the latter's son, came home from college and had not been in the house a day before his mother noticed that he had become engrossed with her maid. Arthur struggled against the passion till withholding expression of it became unbearable, then confessed it to Silvia. His mother overheard him doing so.

"You were not born a servant," said Arthur. "No such high bred manner could come from a plebeian; it is hereditary."

"I am a servant and nothing else," Silvia replied.

"Whatever you are I cannot help loving you. I do love you, and you shall be my wife."

"I will not be your wife, because to marry me would deprive you of the social position which is your right. You would always be ashamed of me, and I would drag you down."

Mrs. Waterbury heard no more. She said nothing to her son about what she had overheard, but the next day did all she could to save her son from a misalliance. She sent the girl away and did not tell Arthur where she had gone.

Several months passed. Mrs. Waterbury saw that her son was not the same man he had been before he came home from college. Ambition had left him; he took no interest in anything. He had experienced a grand passion, and the breaking with his mate had blighted his life.

Then came a coincidence—a chain of coincidences. If there were no coincidences there would be no stories.

Dr. Shotwell, Mrs. Waterbury's family physician, one day drove up to her house, rang and was admitted.

"Why, doctor," said the lady, "what brings you? We are all well here. Surely you must have called socially and are welcome socially."

"I have called to tell you of a singular happening."

"Let me hear it."

"You remember the pretty maid you had here for a time. I have often seen her here and noticed how little like a servant she appeared—that ladylike air."

"Yes, we all noticed that," interrupted the lady somewhat impatiently.

"Well, on leaving you she at once found a position in a family I also attend professionally. She is ill, and I was called in to treat her. In applying a hot poultice between her shoulder blades I noticed a birthmark shaped something like a Maltese cross. I had reason to remember that birthmark, for I had attended the mother of the child who bore it eighteen years before under peculiar circumstances. The woman was the daughter of a social leader, and I had not heard that she had been married, though I was afterward furnished with proof that she was. At any rate, the accouchement was secret."

"The name of this family, doctor?"

Mrs. Waterbury broke in.

"Marshall."

"Marshall! Do you mean to tell me that Silvia is the granddaughter of Mrs. James Osgood Marshall, who flourished socially twenty-five years ago?"

"I do. Julia Marshall, the daughter, married clandestinely. There was trouble in the family, and her mother withdrew from society. Julia's marriage was never published. The child was consigned to a foundlings' home and was lost to her parents, both of whom died soon after she was born."

When Silvia recovered her health she was removed to the house of her former mistress not as a servant, but as the betrothed of Arthur Waterbury. Her identity was established, and she came into possession of certain property that had been left her, but could not be paid since no trace of her could be found.

Since Mrs. Waterbury noticed in her daughter-in-law the manner of a woman she had not herself seen in more than twenty years she has become a strong believer in heredity.

Greatest Celebration in the History of the West at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, April 17 and 18.

ALL CALIFORNIA INVITED TO ATTEND MONSTER FESTIVITIES.
LOW RAILROAD RATES; PARADES AND PAGEANTS UNPARALLELED; MARVELOUS ILLUMINATION FEATURES AND MANY SPECIAL ATTRACTIONS ON THE ZONE WILL DELIGHT MULTITUDES.

Mammoth Fraternal and Peace Day Arranged during Jubilee Week.

Loyal California will Commemorate its Wonderful Rebuilt Metropolis and the Completion of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, the Crowning Achievement of California and the World.

San Francisco and California, the city and the state which occupy such a prominent position among the great cities and states of the Union, are preparing to outdo themselves on April 17 and 18 with a celebration certain to be the greatest in their history. That the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, the greatest universal exposition of all times, should be the center of this celebration is proper and fitting, and it has been so ordered by those in charge of the stupendous affair, arranged to celebrate the rebuilding of the great city, nine years ago destroyed by fire, which left its streets a mass of blackened ruins and wiped out home after home in the path of the flames. San Francisco, proud of her Portola days, her Midwinter Fair and hundreds of other fetes which have been heralded all over the world, will eclipse all of these celebrations in a manner hard to believe, so great is the scope of the plans now under way.

San Francisco's glories are two--the first her amazing recovery from the great disaster of April 18, the second the construction of the most wonderful exposition the world has ever known. The coming celebration will commemorate both of these events. The inclusion of April 17 is made because of the fact that the same date nine years ago saw the last of the "Old San Francisco," so dear to the hearts of Californians and to those who had made their pilgrimage to the metropolis of the Golden State. Therefore, April 17 and 18 will be the greattemplated, San Franciscans will march side by side with Californians, who while not residents of the metropolis, are yet proud of its achievement and the great Exposition which has placed it head and shoulders above any city in the world in that respect. The program will consist of the most spectacular events possible. Competitive athletic events and drills are already scheduled for the daylight hours, while the night will be one continuous round of joy for the thousands who will participate. The sinking of the sun will see the beginning of a carnival such as no city has ever arranged in the past. The present beautiful illumination of the Exposition grounds will be enhanced a thousand fold by ad-est days the Exposition has seen, and when that is said some idea of the wonderful celebration will be obtained. Everything has been included that will bring fun, thrills, joy, laughter, prayer, thanksgiving, devotion and delight. San Franciscans have taken hold of the idea with frenzied enthusiasm and it is certain that all California, proud of the marvelous new San Francisco and of the great Exposition within its boundaries, will rally to the cause with a vim which only loyal Californians can exhibit.

Mayor Rolph of San Francisco has already named Saturday, April 18, as the date on which San Franciscans will give thanks for the many blessings bestowed upon San Francisco by the Almighty since the scourge of fire. Governor Johnson has taken an equal interest in the plans for the celebration and the clergy all over the State have concurred in the spirit of thanksgiving and will hold special services along those lines.

Thornwall Mullally, well known throughout California for his executive ability, is chairman of the Exposition Committee on Special Events for the two great days, thus assuring wonderful military and athletic specialties, the crowning feature of which will be a monster military and civic pageant, starting from a central point in San Francisco to the Exposition grounds, and in this procession, the greatest San Francisco has ever contemplated, San Franciscans will march side by side with Californians, who while not residents of the metropolis, are yet proud of its achievement and the great Exposition which has placed it head and shoulders above any city in the world in that respect. The program will consist of the most spectacular events possible. Competitive athletic events and drills are already scheduled for the daylight hours, while the night will be one continuous round of joy for the thousands who will participate. The sinking of the sun will see the beginning of a carnival such as no city has ever arranged in the past. The present beautiful illumination of the Exposition grounds will be enhanced a thousand fold by ad-

Senator Theodore E. Burton of Ohio, President American Peace Society, Member International Peace Committee, World's Insurance Congress, Who Will Be One of the Principal Speakers.

San Francisco has attempted many great fetes in the years gone by and all of them have been wonderfully successful. The festival of April 17 and 18 will be the greatest the city has ever contemplated, and it is to be a state-wide one. Every Californian is invited to participate, making it not only a San Francisco pageant, but a California one as well. San Francisco extends its arms to her sister cities of the State and asks that all join with her in celebrating the Greater San Francisco and the Panama-Pacific International Exposition. No Californian can afford to miss this wonderful celebration and it is a certainty that no Californian, knowing San Francisco's way of doing things, will fail to be on hand when the thousands already assured begin their wonderful procession to the grounds of the greatest international exposition in the history of the world.

Another great event being arranged for the jubilee week, which begins with the celebration on the 17th, is Fraternal Day, set for April 22. Judging from the elaborate arrangements that are being made, Fraternal Day will go down in the history of the Exposition as one of the biggest days of all and one of the most brilliant of all those which have been planned. A committee composed of representatives of about thirty of the leading fraternal organizations in the United States have been working diligently for weeks past to make the day a grand success, and from reports piling in daily have succeeded beyond their fondest imagination.

The idea of a Fraternal Day at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition was adopted unanimously at a regular session of the National Fraternal Congress, composed of the supreme officers of over a hundred of the leading fraternal insurance organizations in America. Eighteen committees were appointed and headquarters were opened in the Exposition City, with Charles W. Dempster as chairman. All the leading fraternal papers took up the subject with enthusiasm, and the great circulation of these organs should make the day the greatest of its kind in history.

Secretary of State Bryan wired Mr. Dempster acceptance of the chairmanship of the Fraternal Day Peace Committee and his presence at the Exposition will add wonderful interest to the present schedule. The supreme officers of many fraternal organizations from various parts of the country have made known their intentions to be present, and Governor Johnson will be asked to declare Fraternal Day a legal holiday, inasmuch as a great World's Peace Demonstration will be held on the same day. Special rates will be in force on all railroads in California, and the following program, which will be added to from day to day, has already been arranged:

A mammoth fraternal parade, headed by a large platoon of mounted police, divested of firearms, clubs and all implements of hostilities (emblematic of peace), followed by many bands, floats, drum corps and military drill teams, as well as thousands of decorated automobiles, will start at 9:30 a. m. from the Civic Center to the Exposition grounds, through the gates and down the Zone to other parts of the Jewel City. The program on the Exposition grounds during the afternoon will consist of speeches by Secretary of State Bryan and other famous speakers. There will be fancy exhibition drills and contests between military drill teams of different societies for handsome prizes, as well as other appropriate features, including day and night fireworks.

In the evening there is to be a grand reception and ball in the California Building, to which anyone wearing the official Fraternal Day admission and souvenir badge will be admitted. To miss Fraternal Day and the great Peace Demonstration at the Exposition on April 22 would be an oversight to be regretted for years, and the committee in charge of arrangements are planning for the reception of thousands upon thousands of fraternal brothers and sisters on that date.
